Office of Student Affairs Compliance & Title IX
Rutgers University–New Brunswick
2 Richardson St
New Brunswick, NJ 08901

http://compliance.rutgers.edu
NBTitleIX@rutgers.edu

p. 848-932-8200

Rutgers New Brunswick – Title IX Campus Liaison List

| Name | Department | Experience/Special Populations |
|------|-----------|-------------------------------|
| Curtis Chan | SAS Advising | Fluent in native Cantonese, advanced in Mandarin. Born and raised in Hong Kong. Works with transfer students and international students. |
| Kimberly Kosinski | Residence Life | Works with students with disabilities & mental health concerns. |
| Jakora Thompson | Paul Robeson Cultural Center | Historically marginalized students in higher education including but not limited to low‑income, first-generation, Black/Africana diasporic identified students and other minoritized groups. |
| Frankie Lewis | SAS Advising | LGBTQIA Advocate for the Center for Social Justice and LGBT Communities (SJE). |
| Phillip Smith | Student Basic Needs | All types of students throughout my career. I would say working with students of color and Greek students has been my forte. |
| Sharron Crane | Department of Biochemistry and Microbiology | While I have the most experience with the unique challenges faced by transfer students and first-generation students, I understand the barriers faced by other historically marginalized groups and am dedicated to inclusive guidance. |
| Deja Jordan | Residence Life | LGBTQIA+, transfer students, non-traditional, students who are in recovery from substance use, students who have been previously incarcerated, African American students, first‑generation students, students on the autism spectrum. |
| Tazmine Weisgerber | GSAPP | At Answer, we try to focus on all marginalized groups but specifically the LGBTQ+ community, BIPOC, and youth with disabilities. |
| Miguel Rodriquez | SAS-EOF | As a senior EOF counselor, we directly service students from educationally and economically disadvantaged backgrounds. Many of our scholars are 1st Gen, underrepresented, and transfer students. My work in higher education has had an emphasis on supporting male identifying students of color. |

Office of Student Affairs Compliance & Title IX
Rutgers University–New Brunswick
2 Richardson St
New Brunswick, NJ 08901

http://compliance.rutgers.edu
NBTitleIX@rutgers.edu

p. 848-932-8200

| Rev. Katrina Jenkins | Off Campus Living and Community Initiatives | Students of color/women/faith-spirituality issues. |
|---|---|---|
| Stacey Townsend | Rutgers Newark Athletics | LGBTQIA, Athletes |
| Jennifer Paolello | Office of Student Affairs | I have worked most directly with graduate⬚level students. I also have worked directly with students who have experienced any socioeconomic disadvantages through the Minority Student Program (MSP) at Rutgers Law School - Newark. |
| Kimberly Bausch | Rutgers Student Health | I have supervised multiple federal work student students. |
| Carianne Kurabinski | Office of Student Conduct for Residence Life | Works with undergraduates who have lived experience in the foster care system, youths from disadvantaged backgrounds, and youths on the autism spectrum. |
| Christine Whalen | Mason Gross Dean's Office/Theater & Dance | Students in the fine arts. |
| Paolo Miyashiro Bedoyo | Center for Social Justice Education & LGBT Communities | LGBTQIA+ students, first-generation students, immigrant/undocumented students, students of color. |
| Sanskriti Iyet | Health Informatics | My commitment is to create an inclusive and welcoming campus environment for everyone, regardless of background. |
| Stacy Trukowski | Recreation | I spent years managing students and talking with them daily in my time overseeing the fitness center and Instructor staff. I have worked with all student populations including graduate students |
| Ranaysia Burrell | Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution Services | First-year students, transfer students, Graduate students (Masters & Doctoral). |
| Luis Soto | Department of Criminal Justice | Retired law enforcement. Transfer students. |
| Victoria Adiukwu | Graduate student – Rutgers Business School | Rutgers African and black community. |
| Sierra Crubaugh | Center for Research on Ending Violence, School of Social Work | I have completed the safeR space training and would be comfortable with students of any background. |